

Navigating Through Guilt #3

2 Samuel 11:1-12:13

08.25.19

Hickory Chapel

“Oh what tangled web we weave, when first we practice to deceive!” Sir Walter Scott

Psalm 51:1-19

□ Our lives are filled with events and situations where we have made _____ that God never intended for us to make.

The point of the message is this: recognizing our _____ in our guilt and forgiveness is key to _____ in our lives. Genesis 3:1-10

1. Guilt is never conquered or removed until our sin is _____ and _____. 1 John 1:9; V.3; Exodus 20:14; V. 2,9
2. With any sin there is need for _____ and _____.
3. David's greatest sin was against _____. V.4
4. Since ___ sin is ultimately against God, ____ God can truly forgive sin. Colossians 2:13-15
5. To ask God for _____ implies that we believe He _____, and we accept His _____ and we _____ ourselves. Jeremiah 31:31-34; Matthew 5:17
6. As God forgives, we also have a _____ to forgive. Matthew 18:21-35; V.12-13
7. The 1st impulse of someone who is truly forgiven is to _____ and _____ the Lord. 1 John 1: 9

Next Steps: With what you have heard and learned today what will you do?